SGA passes appropriations following president’s return

Brianne Hendricks
brianne.hendricks@thevermilion.com

The Student Government Association held their second meeting of the semester on Monday, Feb. 4.

The governing body began by welcoming President Chandler Harris back from her trip from Washington. Harris represented the University of Louisiana at Lafayette at the National Campus Leadership Council.

SGA also brought up several vacancies in positions in their body. All vacancies can be found in the advertisement within The Vermilion. In particular the programming and events vacancy, which needs someone with strong social media skills.

In old business, SGA voted to pass all appropriations, except for appropriation No.97, which was in the amount of $3,570. This appropriation was for the National Society of Black Engineers to attend a conference in Detroit on March 27 to March 31. Treasurer Reece Walker tabled the appropriation until he has more information on it.

Amendment No. 7, the Executive Budget Transparency Amendment, passed with no objections. Resolution No. 11, a resolution to appoint lyceum committee members also passed. For the 2018-2019 term Julia Frederick, Ph.D., Ryan Teten, Ph.D., Senator Jonathan Adams and Adam Bernard will be appointed to the committee.

Chief-of-Staff Jacob LeMeunier advertised the men’s basketball game for Friday at 8 p.m. LeMeunier made it known that the game would be televised.

Campus and Student Safety made their report of incidents on campus, 12 incidents were reported and they were mostly thefts.