Students of French
At SLI to Present
Play at ABC Fete

Students of French from Southern Louisiana Institute will present a play in French, "Une Bonne Soirée" (A Fine Evening), in St. Martinville at 3 p.m. tomorrow. The play will be presented in the multipurpose room of the high school.

The play tells of the argument and reconciliations of two couples who, left together for a couple evening of cards. It was first prevented in Paris at the Theatre de l'Odéon in 1899. With the opening in Paris, the play is a modern one.

Roles of the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. LeDene, are played by Charles Bervard, Lafayette, and Miss Rosalee Ardoin. Ville Plante, Guest of the card party, Mr. and Mrs. He shied, are portrayed by Justin Miller, Maurice, and Miss Helen Anne Schenck, Arnaudville.

Accounts are Wilfred, Richard, Franklin, and Janet Runnels, New Beau.

The play is being presented as part of the Acadian bicentennial celebration in St. Mar-tinville this evening weekend. How-cas Philipps, professor of foreign languages at SLI, announced.
