Student enrollment is expected to increase overall, according to Associate Superintendent Grant. Walker, who predicted that about 95 students will report as eligible for the program this year.

Walker said more elementary school students are expected this year. He also noted that the elementary school attendance figures have increased.

Walker said the number of students is expected to drop next year.