Although much has changed in Arnaudville over the last several years, one thing has remained the same — the local grocery store.

Russel's Food Center and Champagne's Marche have been fixtures on the local landscape. Russel's first opened their doors in 1935, while Champagne's was established in 1926. Both stores remain family owned and operated.

Susan Westlund looks at some of the art for sale at Town Market Gallery.