State Jaycees Are Feted With Dance

The Shreveport Jaycees feted visitors from all over Louisiana with a dance held during the statewide meeting held Aug. 8, 9 and 10 in Shreveport. The dance was held at Club Coronado with music being furnished by Crawford Priest and his orchestra.

VISITS NATIONAL JAYCEE HEADQUARTERS

Shreveport Jaycee Officers Installed

L. W. Hedrick, Jr., of Shreveport was named the outstanding Jaycee of the year at the annual installation ceremonies held at Monsour’s restaurant in the form of a banquet honoring the incoming and outgoing officers.

Hedrick, outgoing secretary, was the recipient of the annual Moffitt award presented by L. M. Moffitt, past president of the Chamber of Commerce, to the Jaycee whose work in the civic group’s behalf was the most outstanding.

W. H. Armstead was installed as president by George Baird, national officer, to serve for the forthcoming year. Other officers installed by Baird included Paul Osteen, first vice president; Adrian L. Thomas, second vice president; James C. Gardner, secretary, and Zack H. Bennett, Jr., treasurer.

Victor Martzell, Shreveport business man, was guest speaker, who stressed imagination as the leading attribute needed by young men in their civic betterment program.

Ralph Leaderbrand, outgoing president, in his annual report, listed the many accomplishments of the organization during the past year.
