From Social Tea to Champs Of Schooling Rights In Records of Woman’s Club

Meeting her Waterloo with a challenge to her counselism in the record of a woman’s club was presented by Mrs. E. P. Cullers, an inveterate to gathering together her organizational indices who helped organize the Woman’s Club. The club, formed in 1912 by Mrs. Anna Margaret Curtis, had long struggled to achieve a public school for underprivileged children and had even ventured into the field of civic education for all women of the city.

Mrs. Anna Margaret Curtis, in a year-end meeting of the Woman’s Club of Lafayette, declared that the club had accomplished much in the way of educational improvement for the city. She commended the efforts of the club in the establishment of a private school for underprivileged children, which had been catering to the needs of these children for many years. The club had also worked to improve the educational facilities in the public schools and had been actively involved in the promotion of civic education for all women of the city.

Mardi Gras Ass’n Has Spirit of Fun and Festivity Alive in Carnival Season

A Mardi Gras Ass’n has met with considerable success throughout the season, according to the president of the Ass’n, Mr. W. A. Leffler. The Ass’n, which has been active for several years, has been awarded a large, colorful float for the parade. The float, which was first organized and a possible one of the best floats ever made by the Ass’n, will be included in the parade.

The parade is scheduled to go through the city on March 3, and the Ass’n is looking forward to the event with great anticipation. The Ass’n has been active in the city for several years, and has been involved in several major events, including the annual Mardi Gras parade and the annual Christmas parade. The Ass’n has succeeded in bringing together a group of people who are interested in the city and its events, and has succeeded in creating a spirit of fun and festivity that is unique to the city.
