—SOUTH LOUISIANA got some South-Of-The-Border publicity a few weeks ago — of the negative variety.

Cajun Communists and their fellow traveling friends from New Orleans to the Texas border won’t like it but their “Spartacist League” received full treatment in one of the major newspapers of the Isthmus.

THE SPARTACIST outfit, had penetrated some Louisiana university and college campuses, a Louisiana-based space facility, a major Louisiana newspaper, and picketed a Central American president when he visited New Orleans.

WELL, IT HAPPENED that the Spartacist itself had been penetrated by policemen, lawyers and private investigators. The Louisiana Joint Legislative Committee on Un-American Activities published the details in July in a booklet of nearly 200 pages, complete with sworn testimony, pictures, the works. The Down South newspaper picked up the information and gave it broad bi-lingual exposure.
