Spanish Trail Group Meets Tuesday in New Orleans

THE Old Spanish Trail, called the nation's only snow-free coast-to-coast highway, is shown on this map. Headquarters of the National Old Spanish Trail association is in Beaumont. The organization will hold its annual meeting in New Orleans Thursday. Seals of states through which the highway passes are shown at top of map.

Russell Stowell, president of the San Diego County (Cal.) Highway Development association, will be one of the principal speakers at the meeting, it was announced yesterday by W. L. Rammel of Beaumont, secretary. Mr. Stowell will speak on "Relation of the West to the Old Spanish Trail."

Beaumont Sunday Enterprise
January 9, 1949
section 7, page 6