MELIODON JEWELRY — The centers in the gold and silver set, as worn in the Louisiana Creole neighborhood, have the pendants as this one, which is worn in the French Quarter. A gold and diamond set of 1920 which cost $250 will be the center of attention in the French Quarter of St. Martinville. The set, which is from a New Orleans jeweler, is made of gold and diamonds.

St. Martin Plans Major ABC Event

The annual performance of the St. Martin's Mysterium, which is held in the French Quarter on the 5th of April, will be a major event in the ABC area. The performance will be held at the French Quarter Church, which is located on the corner of St. Peter and Royal Streets.

The Mysterium, being performed by the French Quarter Church, is a religious and cultural event that has been held annually since its inception in 1900. The performance is a celebration of the history and culture of the French Quarter and is attended by thousands of people from all over the world.

The performance will feature a variety of entertainment, including live music, dance, and storytelling. The event is free and open to the public, and all are welcome to attend.

The St. Martin Mysterium is an important event in the ABC area and is a highlight of the spring season in New Orleans. It is a unique opportunity to experience the history and culture of the French Quarter and to celebrate the rich heritage of the area.
