EVANGELINE GAZETTER — A group of school bus drivers Alhambra voters known to "Las Vegas Gossipers" from St.
Jonathan voters force throughout the bicentennial year, in great and distinguished manner as marchers in the Bayou Veche town in the heart of the Acadian country. Approved by the city administration, the bus drivers will convert guided tours and exhibits of buildings, museums and other events in commemoration of the 200th anniversary of the Acadian settlements from Spain.

St. Martinville to be Host Town
For Year-Long Bicentennial Fete

ST. MARTINVILLE, Jan. 2 — The typical Acadian seat of "be-lance," once proud, today a home in a heart of the Acadian country. St. Martinville, south of Lafayette, home of the Acadian settlement, is looking forward to the bicentennial year, which will be filled with a schedule of events to commemorate the bicentennial. The bus drivers, who have a central role in the history of Acadian Settlements, will play a major part in the bicentennial activities.

The bus drivers, who are responsible for carrying tourists and other visitors to the various sites, have been involved in the planning process for the bicentennial. They have been invited to participate in various events such as guided tours and exhibits of
buildings, museums and other events in commemoration of
the 200th anniversary of the Acadian settlements from Spain.

For Year-Long Bicentennial Fete

ST. MARTINVILLE, Jan. 2 — The typical Acadian seat of "be-lance," once proud, today a home in a
heart of the Acadian country. St. Martinville, south of Lafayette, home of the Acadian settlement, is looking forward to the bicentennial year, which will be filled
with a schedule of events to commemorate the
bicentennial. The bus drivers, who have a central role in the history of Acadian Settlements, will play a major part in the bicentennial activities.

The bus drivers, who are responsible for
carrying tourists and other visitors to the various
sites, have been involved in the planning process for the bicentennial. They have been invited to participate in various events
such as guided tours and exhibits of
buildings, museums and other events in commemoration of
the 200th anniversary of the Acadian settlements from Spain.

The bus drivers, who are responsible for
carrying tourists and other visitors to the various
sites, have been involved in the planning process for the bicentennial. They have been invited to participate in various events
such as guided tours and exhibits of
buildings, museums and other events in commemoration of
the 200th anniversary of the Acadian settlements from Spain.

The bus drivers, who are responsible for
carrying tourists and other visitors to the various
sites, have been involved in the planning process for the bicentennial. They have been invited to participate in various events
such as guided tours and exhibits of
buildings, museums and other events in commemoration of
the 200th anniversary of the Acadian settlements from Spain.

The bus drivers, who are responsible for
carrying tourists and other visitors to the various
sites, have been involved in the planning process for the bicentennial. They have been invited to participate in various events
such as guided tours and exhibits of
buildings, museums and other events in commemoration of the 200th anniversary of the Acadian settlements from Spain.