Students to Act in Acadian Pageant

Lafayette — The Catholic Student Center of Loyola University will present an Acadian Pageant at 8 p.m. Thursday and 2 p.m. and 8 p.m. Friday in the campus gym. The two evenings will feature students from Loyola and Tulane Universities.

The pageant will be directed by Professor E. J. Riley, who has worked on this project for more than 15 years. The students will wear costumes and dances to represent the Acadian culture.

The program will include a traditional Acadian meal and a variety of Acadian music performed by the Loyola and Tulane choirs.

The University of Louisiana at Lafayette will also participate in the pageant, and a special guest appearance will be made by Mr. and Mrs. J. W. (Bill) Beaudin, who will perform a segment of the pageant.

The pageant is sponsored by the University of Louisiana at Lafayette and Loyola University.
