Alvar Sunol Will Present New Paintings at Bryant

The Bryant Galleries, Inc., 519 Royal, will present a one-man exhibition of new paintings. The work is displayed by gallery owner, Mrs. Felice Lowe.

PAUL ARTHUR DUFOUR'S "Wounded Bird: Investiture" is one of a series of paintings on that theme in the Baton Rouge artist's Lowe Gallery exhibition. The work is displayed by gallery owner, Mrs. Felice Lowe.

This show will remain on view through Nov. 25.

DR. MAURICE L. SHAPIRO, associate professor of art history at Newcomb College, will deliver a lecture this Thursday at 7:15 p.m. on "Does Modern Art Have Meaning?"

A specialist in Italian Renaissance art, Dr. Shapiro received his bachelor of arts and master of arts degrees from Columbia University in New York City. He later received a master of science degree from Cornell University and a doctor of philosophy degree in Renaissance art from New York University.

A member of Who's Who in the Southeast, Dr. Shapiro is the author of several articles on Renaissance art.

The talk, which is one of a series of lectures entitled "The Arts in Our Lives" sponsored by the Tulane Catholic Center, will be held at the center's 1037 Audubon St. location. The public is invited.

THE DELGADO MUSEUM

This month's film for this Thursday is "Blue Angel," starring Marlene Dietrich and Emil Jannings.

The movie, which tells the story of a university professor who falls in love with a night club singer, will be shown at 8:00 and 9:30 p.m. in the museum's Downman Auditorium.
