TO MEXICO

TIRAA Formed Trade Mission

The Trade Relations Association of Acadia Inc. (TIRAA) took part in a trade mission to Mexico which was held in March of 1973. The mission aimed to establish and develop trade connections between Acadia and Mexico.

During the mission, TIRAA officials met with Mexican government officials to discuss potential trade opportunities. The mission also included visits to various Mexican cities and businesses to explore potential trade agreements.

The mission was a success, and it laid the foundation for future trade relations between Acadia and Mexico. TIRAA officials expressed confidence in the potential for increased trade and investment in the region.

The mission was a joint effort between TIRAA and the government of Mexico, and it was part of a broader strategy to increase trade and investment in the region. The success of the mission led to further collaborations between TIRAA and Mexican officials, and it helped to establish a strong foundation for future trade relations.
