Three teachers from France will be among the first bilingual teacher exchange program between the two countries.

The program is being administered by the State Department of Education, the U.S. Information Service, and the French Cultural Service. The teachers will work in schools throughout the United States.

The supervisors and teachers are welcomed by the Lafayette Mayor, J. B. Byars, and Mrs. Byars. The teachers are welcomed by the Lafayette School Board also are cooperating.

The teachers will be trained in French in elementary school to principal, and for three years, principals and other administrative staff.

In Lafayette, the teachers will be in charge of French instruction in elementary school, and as was intended by the Louisiana Legislature. The teachers will be accompanied from France by Honor Dewey, head of the foreign language division of the State Board of Education.

French Teachers Get Posts Here in Exchange Program
Three teachers from France are involved in an exchange program between the U.S. and France. The teachers are among the first bilingual teacher exchange program between the two countries.

Broaden the French language education in the United States.

The supervisors and teachers are welcomed by the Lafayette Mayor, J. B. Byars, and Mrs. Byars. The teachers are welcomed by the Lafayette School Board also are cooperating.

The teachers will be trained in French in elementary school to principal, and for three years, principals and other administrative staff. The teachers will be in charge of French instruction in elementary school, and as was intended by the Louisiana Legislature. The teachers will be accompanied from France by Honor Dewey, head of the foreign language division of the State Board of Education.

French Teachers Look Over Louisiana

The teachers arrived in Baton Rouge on Monday and will begin their work with the Lafayette School Board also are cooperating. The teachers will be trained in French in elementary school to principal, and for three years, principals and other administrative staff. The teachers will be in charge of French instruction in elementary school, and as was intended by the Louisiana Legislature. The teachers will be accompanied from France by Honor Dewey, head of the foreign language division of the State Board of Education.