Business news

The Linen House has linens for the bedroom and bath, kitchen coordinates, tablecloths

At THE LINEN HOUSE, 114 Rena Drive, Lafayette, Connie Pellerin shows off a Battenburg table cloth of 100 percent cotton, handmade in China. These table cloths come in white and ecru and the sizes vary from 90 to 144 inches. There are also hand-crocheted bed covers, ideal for antique beds, also available in white or ecru, and also made of 100 percent cotton. The Linen House now has extra long twin sheets in white and decorator colors and extra long mattress pads to fit the new trend in beds.

Dot Berkenmeier at The Linen House invites you to inspect her collection of shower curtains. She is holding a scalloped, embossed curtain in white, made by Jolo. She has a large selection to choose from including the new blues and jades. There is also an oriental look. Dot is just back from market where she selected new items including a new line of coordinated kitchen accessories and comforters with coordinates. If you need monogramming on back to school bags, bring them in early. The Linen House has personalized bags and backpacks in the Thomas More school colors.

It’s worth a drive to Erath to taste Herman’s delicious country fried chicken

At THE ROSARY HOUSE 699 E. St. Peter in New Iberia, rosaries are handmade to order.

The Rosary House in New Iberia has largest stock of religious articles in the south

The Rosary House has the largest selection of religious articles in the South. They have crosses and religious pendants; they have medals and holy cards of the most popular saints. There are crucifixes in a variety of sizes and styles. They make their outdoor statues, in different sizes. Indoor statues in different sizes are also available of the most popular saints. They make their own rosaries and rosaries can be made to order, in keeping with the wishes of the customer. They also make their own candles and these are available in a variety of sizes.

Be sure to visit the half-price table. Robert Minville, owner, buys import items and close outs in large quantities and these are featured at the half-price table. These include plaques, medals and chains, paper weights and letter openers, rosaries and statues and other useful gifts for birthdays, anniversaries and special occasions.

The Rosary House also makes vestments to order. There is a picture framing department, and they sell Hallmark greeting cards.

There is always plenty of free parking at The Rosary House, 699 E. St. Peter in New Iberia. They are open Monday through Saturday, 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m.