Grand Coteau in the early 1900's was schooling headquarters for many daughters of Lafayette families, and girls from throughout the area and state. Shown is a college of the Sacred Heart class, taken in the early part of the century. Included in the group are Marie and Rita Remoulet, New Iberia; Marie Andrepont, Opelousas; Betsy St. Julien (Mrs. George Billiaud) Opelousas; Ruth Stelly; Inez St. Germain; Vivien Mouton, Lafayette; Mary DelHart, New Orleans; Miss Budd, Opelousas and Ruth Mouton (Mrs. C. E. Hamilton), Lafayette. Marie Arnaudet, Jennings; Anne Mouton, (Mrs. Louis A. Habert), Lake Charles; Nana Guidry, (Mrs. E. E. Guillot, Sr.), Carencro; Miss Martin, Arnaudville; Miss Budd, Opelousas; Bitty Broussard (Mrs. C. E. St. Julien), Lafayette; Miss Olivier, Grand Coteau; Delia Billiaud, (Mrs. Frank Beauchet), Broussard; Urs Bonin, St. Martinville; Gertrude Scramon (Mrs. P. P. Daly), Lafayette; Anna and Laurence, Labbe; Eva Mouton; Gertrude Barry, Augusta Chetian (deceased); Céline Broussard, Gertrude Mouton (deceased); Falmichy Andrepont (Mrs. Martin Burdell), Opelousas and Pearl Guidry (Mrs. Frank Barousse), Lafayette. Sarah Ann Mouton (Mrs. Quastilbaum), Houston; Frances Taitton, (Mrs. Varilain), Mathilde Mouton, former warden of the Southern Vicariate of the Society of the Sacred Heart (deceased) and Nellie St. Julien, San Antonio, Tex.

(Photograph courtesy of Mrs. Charles E. Hamilton.)

Dec. 29, 1949

P. 15, c. 1-4