PART OF FESTIVALS ACADINIENS

Canadian Officials To Participate In Twinning Ceremonies At Village

Jean-Pierre Ouellet, New Brunswick's minister of Cultural and Historical Resources, and other Canadian officials will participate in the Twinning Ceremonies at the Acadian Village of Lafayette, Louisiana.

The ceremony will take place on Sunday, September 16, 1973, at the Acadian Village of Lafayette. The event is part of the celebration of the 25th anniversary of the Acadian Village and the 4th Festival Acadiens in Louisiana.

The Canadian delegation will include officials from New Brunswick, including Jean-Pierre Ouellet, Minister of Cultural and Historical Resources. They will participate in the Twinning Ceremonies with Acadian Village officials.

The event will feature cultural performances, traditional Acadian music, and a special performance by the Canadian National Orchestra. The ceremony will also include a presentation of a key to the village from the Acadian Village to the New Brunswick delegation.

The Twinning Ceremonies are part of the annual Festival Acadiens, which celebrates the Acadian culture and heritage.

The Canadian delegation will visit the Acadian Village and participate in the Twinning Ceremonies, which are an important part of the Festival Acadiens. The event will help to strengthen the cultural ties between Canada and Louisiana.

The Twinning Ceremonies are an important part of the Festival Acadiens, which celebrates the Acadian culture and heritage. The event will feature cultural performances, traditional Acadian music, and a special performance by the Canadian National Orchestra. The ceremony will also include a presentation of a key to the village from the Acadian Village to the New Brunswick delegation.

The Canadian delegation will visit the Acadian Village and participate in the Twinning Ceremonies, which are an important part of the Festival Acadiens. The event will help to strengthen the cultural ties between Canada and Louisiana.