Sylvia P. Ross, director of extension courses and coordinator of the DOORS (Diversified Opportunities for the Older and Returning Student) program at the University of Southwestern Louisiana, has been appointed to serve as chairman of the Education Division, according to Jerry W. Brents, general campaign chairman. The 1981-82 UGF Campaign will be kicked off Sept. 21 and will continue through Oct. 30. The goal is $700,000 to fund the 24 social agencies qualifying for UGF funding. The Company Payroll Deduction campaign will also be kicked off Sept. 21.

Miss Ross, a native of Clarksdale, Miss., received both her bachelor's and master's degrees from the University of Mississippi. She earned the bachelor's degree in art education and the masters degree in guidance and counseling.

Before joining the USL staff, Miss Ross taught art in Mississippi high schools. From 1968-76, she was assistant dean of women, associate dean of women and associate student personnel dean, respectively. For the past five years she has been a counselor in special services. She is a member of the Louisiana Association of Women Deans, Administrators and Counselors, Delta Kappa Gamma honor society for women and educators, the Board of Directors of the Bayou Girl Scout Council, Acadiana Emergency Medical Service Council, Lafayette Natural History Museum and Planetarium. She also is a member of St. Barnabas Episcopal Church and the Acadiana Arts Council.

She serves on several university committees, including student health, religious activities, sorority and the women's programs.
