A teacher of modern languages and director of the United Towns Organization, Mrs. Charlotte Borga, arrived recently in Lafayette and the surrounding area to visit and extended the invitation to go to France and meet with Mrs. Borga and her organization.

UNITED IN PURPOSE — Mrs. Charlotte Borga, a teacher of modern languages and director of the United Towns Organization in France, is visiting in Lafayette and Acadiana, she came to the area after James Dornengeaux, state chairman of the Council for the Development of French in Louisiana, visited in France recently and extended the invitation. (Advertiser Staff Photo)

United Towns Organization Delegate Visiting Acadiana

A teacher of modern languages and director of the United Towns Organization, Mrs. Charlotte Borga, arrived recently in Lafayette and the surrounding area to visit and extend the invitation.

"The English in Louisiana will not lose anything, but the promotion of French among its members will cause the development of a second language and a second culture which is something enriching."

"Very Good Work"

"I find what Mr. Dornengeaux has been doing here in this field is more exceptional in this field. His staff and the people working with him are exemplary and really doing very good work."

Mrs. Borga, who is also a member of the Ministry of Education, has been in the UTO organization for 15 years, interested by its linguistic doctrine. She has also been working for many years on the reforms of the teaching of modern languages and has met with several people with the same opinion who wanted things to change concerning the teaching method and worked for the promotion of bilingualism.

Very Good Work

The French visitor, who is visiting in the United States for the first time, said, "I find what Mr. Dornengeaux has been doing here is more exceptional in this field. His staff and the people working with him are exemplary and really doing very good work."

Mrs. Borga found the people in this area hospitable as well as open-minded to things from the outside because of their acceptance to another culture; they are very proud American citizens. The people here like to speak French and they like to come in contact with French speaking people. I have been received as