Making plans

A grant to Acadian Village will be expanded, studies by a Council grant of the Lafayette Association for Retarded Citizens, show reviewing blueprints, one from left: Council president Rod

Quade, John Aronowitz, Paul Cassidy, John

Schauder, and Bob Lowe.

Acadian Village gets grant

Continuing their 20-year history of helping the handicapped, Lafayette Council recently made another construction grant to the Lafayette Association of Retarded Citizens.

The grant earmarked to expand the L'Horizon where Aca-dian Village began, its mission was to provide a center where special events could be held.

The area will also be used for weddings and other receptions. The area will also be used for weddings and other receptions. The area will also be used for weddings and other receptions. The area will also be used for weddings and other receptions. The area will also be used for weddings and other receptions. The area will also be used for weddings and other receptions.

Recently, the Council received a $200,000 grant for construction of the building.

The money was broadcast throughout the country.

The building is used for the Center, which is located at Acadian Village, is used for all non-commercial administrative building and business office.

The Center provides part and full-time grants to help the handicapped children and adults.

The Center, which was opened in 1961, has been recognized as having one of the most effective

The Daily Advertiser

Tuesday, July 30, 1970

Page 10

10

10