Acadian Village, known as the Tourist Attraction with a Past, is an authentic replica of an authentic Acadian house in the Village. The acadian-style houses were built by hand in 1976 and are replicas of authentic Acadian homes. The houses are built with careful attention to detail to duplicate early Acadian homes. The six authentic houses in Acadian Village are the Bernier-Bernard House, the Castillo House, the LaFleur-Skeels House, the Zeno-DeRousseau House, and the Morais House. The houses are built with care to replicate the architecture and design of early Acadian homes. The houses are open to the public and are a popular destination for tourists.
