Ville Platte Plans Acadian Reception

Ville Platte, La., Jan. 30—A representative delegation of Acadians from Canada was received briefly in Ville Platte and will officially open the Louisiana Bicentennial on Friday morning.

The delegation is invited to Pecan Festival festivities and to participate in the official opening of the Acadian bicentennial celebration, scheduled for Feb. 1, and were welcomed at the Ville Platte airport by Mayor Leon Leckie and a group of Acadian representatives.

The Acadians will be received by the Rev. Charles L. Greer, bishop of Alexandria, at the Lion's Club meeting on Friday.

The Acadians will return to Ville Platte and will spend the weekend there.

The delegation is expected to arrive at 3 p.m. Friday when they will be welcomed by the Acadian community.

The group is expected to arrive in St. Landry Parish and will be received by Mayor Leon Leckie and the Rev. Charles L. Greer, bishop of Alexandria.

The Acadians will be welcomed by a group of Acadian representatives and will be welcomed by Mayor Leon Leckie and the Rev. Charles L. Greer, bishop of Alexandria.

The Acadians will be welcomed by a group of Acadian representatives and will be welcomed by Mayor Leon Leckie and the Rev. Charles L. Greer, bishop of Alexandria.

The Acadians will be welcomed by a group of Acadian representatives and will be welcomed by Mayor Leon Leckie and the Rev. Charles L. Greer, bishop of Alexandria.

The Acadians will be welcomed by a group of Acadian representatives and will be welcomed by Mayor Leon Leckie and the Rev. Charles L. Greer, bishop of Alexandria.

The Acadians will be welcomed by a group of Acadian representatives and will be welcomed by Mayor Leon Leckie and the Rev. Charles L. Greer, bishop of Alexandria.

The Acadians will be welcomed by a group of Acadian representatives and will be welcomed by Mayor Leon Leckie and the Rev. Charles L. Greer, bishop of Alexandria.

The Acadians will be welcomed by a group of Acadian representatives and will be welcomed by Mayor Leon Leckie and the Rev. Charles L. Greer, bishop of Alexandria.

The Acadians will be welcomed by a group of Acadian representatives and will be welcomed by Mayor Leon Leckie and the Rev. Charles L. Greer, bishop of Alexandria.

The Acadians will be welcomed by a group of Acadian representatives and will be welcomed by Mayor Leon Leckie and the Rev. Charles L. Greer, bishop of Alexandria.

The Acadians will be welcomed by a group of Acadian representatives and will be welcomed by Mayor Leon Leckie and the Rev. Charles L. Greer, bishop of Alexandria.