Washington's Birthday To Be Marked By Local DAR And SAR

A George Washington's Birthday celebration is planned again this year by the Galvez chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, and the Attakapas chapter, Sons of the American Revolution, on Saturday, Feb. 17, in the Oakbourne Country Club.

At this patriotic event, nine young women from Southwest Louisiana will be formally presented to the DAR and SAR members and their guests. A cocktail party will precede the dinner dance. The special event is planned for from 7 until 11 p.m.

To be presented at the dinner are Misses Nancy Boynton, Simone DeBaillon, Nina Garceiser, Carol Hetherwick, Susan Lewis, Anne McCampbell, Jane Moise, Christine Palmer, and Linda Dee Rose.

Miss Boynton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Boynton, Abbeville, is a senior at the Abbeville High School where she is on the basketball team, is the class secretary, and belongs to the Beta, French, and Athletic clubs. Miss Boynton is also a member of the Children of the American Revolution.

Miss DeBaillon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles DeBaillon Jr., Lafayette, is a senior at the Mt. Carmel School, where she is a member of the Varsity Basketball Team, Senior Society, and the Mt. Carmel Catholic Daughters of America. She was a maid in the annual Mt. Carmel Winter Carousel. She was a maid in Les Brigandas de Lafayette and was a narrator in last night's ball.

Miss Garceiser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe William Garceiser, Abbeville, is a senior in the Abbeville High School, where she is class secretary, editor of the AHS newspaper, and on the Wildcat staff, the school's annual. She belongs to the French and Beta clubs. Miss Garceiser also belongs to the Marquis de Lafayette chapter, Children of the American Revolution, in Lafayette.

Miss Hetherwick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Hetherwick, Lafayette, is a senior at the Lafayette Senior High School, where she represents her class on the Student Council. She is on the honor roll, member of the Future Business Leaders of America, Les Amies and the Semper Amici clubs at the school. She was the sweetheart of the Student Council's 'Miss Merry Christmas Dance,' and last night she was one of the Royal Maids in the ball given by Les Briganda de LaLafette in Lafayette.

Miss Lewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Holly Lewis, Abbeville, is a junior at the Abbeville High School, where she is a debater, and a member of the student government. Miss Lewis is the state representative of the Children of the American Revolution.

Miss McCampbell, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. John C. McCampbell, Lafayette, is a senior at the Lafayette High School, where she has been in the Honor Society for three years. Academic clubs in which she holds membership are the Latin and Math clubs, and the social groups to which she belongs are Semper Amici and Les Amies. At the Grace Presbyterian Church, she sings in the choir. Her hobbies are the violin and the piano.

Miss Moise, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Moise, Opelousas, is an honor student in the Opelousas High School, president of the Eleanor Littlefellow chapter, Future Teachers of America; parish and local song leader of the Future Homemakers of America; member of Mu Alpha Theta, honorary math fraternity, French club, pep squad, alternate to Pelican State, and Pilot Girl of the month.

Miss Moise has represented her school at the state rallies in Home Economics and Mathematics for three years. She is president of the Lafayette District of Methodist Youth Fellowship and the church choir, as well as Assembly 18, Rainbow for Girls.

Miss Palmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Palmer, is a senior at the Lafayette High School where she belongs to Les Amies, the Science Club and the orchestra. She is a charter member and past president of Marquis de Lafayette chapter, Children of the American Revolution, and she is active in the Methodist Youth Fellowship and the church choir. She has represented her school at the state rallies in Home Economics and Mathematics for three years. She is president of her local Methodist Youth Fellowship, and the state winner of an essay speech contest. "Alcoholism, a Modern Menace" - 1961-62. Miss Rose has won the DAR Good Citizen Award, was the state custodian of voting machines at Pelican Girls' State, and was an outstanding member of the Pep Squad for two years. She has been an honor student for three years, and has enrolled in Centenary College for the coming fall.