Evergreen by James Turner

Lyrics and melody written by James Turner

Music written in $\frac{3}{4}$ time with a bounce to it.

Refrain 1: Evergreen, Evergreen, Ever – true

This is the town that we knew

Ever so lovely a town can be.

This is the place called home.

Verses 1: So much has changed, but our

Town still remains, peaceful,

And green and so quiet.

Think of the past and of things

That will last in our small –

Quiet town.

Refrain 2: Evergreen, Evergreen, Ever – true

This is the school that we knew

Ever so lovely a school can be

This is a place called home.

Verse 3: Remember the way that our school used to wait,

Sitting on top of the hill

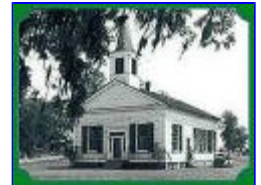

All that remains is the memory of it,

Ole Evergreen High.

Verse 4: The school that we went to, is gone from our sight,
But memories still remain,
Remember the past and things that will last,
Ole Evergreen High.

Go to Refrain 2 and end.

Written by James Turner, EHS 1948 Class, May 26, 1990 and sang by former EHS students led by James for the 1990 Evergreen Reunion.
